Premier Content Partner Spotlight: Yellow Door

AWE Learning is committed to providing engaging and educational digital experiences for young learners. As part of this mission, we are thrilled to highlight Yellow Door as one of our premier content partners.

Yellow Door is renowned for its innovative and interactive learning resources designed to foster creativity, literacy, numeracy, and problem-solving skills in early childhood education. Their content seamlessly integrates with AWE Learning's platform, ensuring children have access to high-quality, hands-on learning activities in libraries, classrooms, and other educational environments.

Through this collaboration, AWE Learning continues to enhance its offerings with research-backed, engaging, and developmentally appropriate educational materials. We are excited to work alongside Yellow Door to support educators and inspire young minds to explore, learn, and grow.

More From YellowDoor:

Yellow Door products help to improve outcomes for children through wonderful play experiences. We truly believe play is the way! Our product developers have a thorough understanding of child development – gained through many years' experience as qualified teachers. Since our launch in 2006, we have been passionately developing quality early childhood products to support the learning and development of young children. Based in Cambridge, UK, our range is full of award-winning, multi-sensory resources designed to inspire creative, open-ended and language-rich play.

"At Yellow Door, we believe that helping you to offer language rich play environments is the best thing we can do together to enhance children's learning, their well-being and their future success."

Customer Support Tips

- Important! Do NOT insert any zeros in the Admin Panel timers or Warning Timers!
- Turn off your computer when it's not in use.
- Be sure to plug your AWE computer into a surge protector to prevent software corruption or hardware damage.
- AWE software does not connect reliably to unsecure networks (Wi-Fi networks with no passwords).
- When connecting to your network, the AWE software cannot connect to a hidden network.
- To check if your computer is automatically uploading usage data to the customer portal, click the "Send Utilization Statistics to the Portal" button in the Admin Panel.
- Click it once and wait. You will see a small circle, then you will get a Sync Complete message.

- If you do not get the message, it is not auto-uploading.
